Author self-review form

Verify that the article complies with each one of the items listed below:

☐ The title does not exceed 15 words, includes the English translation and a short title less than 8 words long.

☐ The name of the author includes the first name, first surname and the initial of the second surname, followed by a comma and abbreviation of the latest academic degree or professional title obtained.

☐ The hierarchized affiliation of the authors is included: Institution, University, Faculty, Department, Laboratory, Institute, Group, etc., direction, city and country.

☐ Email and cellular telephone of the corresponding author is included.

☐ The abstract is between 150 and 250 words. It should be structured with subtitles in boldface type: objective, materials and methods, results and conclusions.

☐ Structured abstract does not apply because the article sent corresponds to: literary review ( ), short communication ( ) clinical case ( ).

☐ Not more than 6 key words are included, which are not in the title and were obtained from a thesaurus in the respective area, and whose name is written in parenthesis and italics.

☐ The abstract is a faithful translation of the Spanish version.

☐ The keywords correspond to the key words translated from Spanish into English.

☐ Introduction, materials and methods, results, discussion, acknowledgements and references follow the guidelines of Journal MVZ Córdoba.

☐ Titles of the tables are in the upper part, figures in the lower part, are fewer than 10, and correspond to the style of the Journal MVZ Córdoba and are at the end of the document.

☐ Graphs, photographs and drawings comply with the specifications described in the author instructions.
The number of citations in the text of the article correspond to the same ones listed in the reference section and are according to the Vancouver style guide.

The number of references are those allowed according to the article presented and are not more than 10 years old. Total references older than 10 years are justified and do not exceed 20% of the total. A maximum of two books are cited and restricted references are not included.

The article pages have the following configuration: 3 centimeter margins (superior, inferior, right and left), verdana font, size 12 and simple spacing.

The article does not exceed the number of words permitted according to the submitted form.

Three files in Word format, duly filled out, are sent: the article, author declaration form and author self-review form.

Files with figures are sent with the specifications describe in the instructions for authors.

The above point does not apply because the article does not contain figures.

Complete name of the corresponding author

I certify by means of my signature that the article was checked and complies with the requirements contained in the instructions to authors.

City: ____________________________ Country: ____________________________
Date: __________________________

Signature: ____________________________

Note: Failing to fulfill any of the requirements set out above will result in the automatic rejection of the article.